

Annual Quality Assurance Report 2010-11

Name of the Institution: PES's College of Arts and Science

Farmagudi Ponda Goa

SECTION A

History

PES College was established in the year 1986 by the combined efforts of many prominent educationists and social workers of Ponda City. The fact that, students of Ponda taluka and surrounding areas had to travel long distances to obtain higher education on completion of their HSSC studies, as there was no general higher education facility available in Ponda at that time. Besides, education was beyond the reach of the poorer section of society. As a result, the poor and deserving students in this area who could not afford to travel long distances were deprived of higher education. Thus the Ponda Education Society's decision to start the College came as a welcome idea which would help the majority of the students of Ponda taluka.

The Society approached the then Chief Minister of Goa, Shri. Pratap Singh Rane for the present building owned by the Tourism Department, Government of Goa, which was not in use for many years, at Farmagudi, The Government of Goa, leased the building along with 35,000 square meters of land to Ponda Education Society for 5 years. Thus the College was started on 20th June 1986. In 1992, the present President of Ponda Education Society Shri. Ravi S. Naik, the then Chief Minister of Goa, extended the lease from 5 years to 99 years for the betterment of the educational institution.

The College is housed in a well-ventilated building, and is ideal for this purpose. Adequate class rooms, laboratory and library facilities are provided. The building is situated on a high altitude in a calm and quite atmosphere, ideal for studies.

The management has appointed a team of dynamic and experienced teachers for facilitating teaching, learning and for providing guidance to students. Many students of this area being first generation learners are admitted without any special screening, but with the help of hard-working, dynamic and experienced teachers, they are provided with the best education and guidance which helps them to graduate with flying colours. Since 1986, twenty three batches of students appeared for TY Examination conducted by GOA UNIVERSITY. Thousands of them have successfully graduated and settled and many among them are holding good positions and doing well in life.

5. Examination Reforms implemented:

The present semester based University examination system has two modes of Assessment

(a) ISA (Intra-Semester Assessment)

(b) SEE (Semester End Examination)

- The College has an examination committee with a senior teacher as a convener with seven members for effective management of ISA & SEE. The committee carries the allotted functions, which include preparation of examination schedules, conducting of examinations, the collection of sealed question papers, collection of assessed answer sheets and preparation of the results. This ensures the smooth functioning of the examination without burdening a certain section of teachers. Secondly, all the teachers submit typed question paper; this has minimized manual error and enhanced proof reading of the question papers.
- Though the University has allowed flexibility in the conduct of ISA, the college has adopted a uniform pattern for effective functioning of the same. The College conducts two ISA's in two different modes. The first is written test conducted as per a certain schedule intimated in advance to the students. Second ISA is a written assignment to be submitted with oral component.

- Notices are displayed on notice boards at various locations of the schedule of examination and marks allocations for each of the examination. Further, at the time of admission, each student is given a handbook which gives the tentative schedule of the examination. This is essential to ensure students appear for both the ISA's as it is a prerequisite for being eligible to appear at SEE (Semester End Examination)
- Lastly, to have zero error result, the examination committee scrutinizes individual entry of each paper before the final feeding of the result.

The college has always focused on improvising its functioning to make it more effective.

42. Action Taken Report on the AQAR of the previous year

The process for internal quality checks has been put in place by the College through the establishment of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell from academic year 2010-11. The IQAC plays a key role in the quality assurance efforts within the existing academic and administrative system. The IQAC receives inputs from every department – both academic and administrative – about their perspective plans which spell among other things, measures that would be taken for quality assurance and up-gradation.

The departments prepare their perspective plans, course evaluation by students, Faculty Improvement Programme, research and other activities of the faculty, as well as general evaluation of the curriculum.

The inputs coming from the departments, and the review of its own past performance are used to prepare the action plan. On the basis of these departmental inputs, the College Planning board prepares the institutions perspective plan. The Annual College Calendar then spells out time bound targets which are set on the basis of its perspective plan. This College Calendar acts as one of the tools that are used for monitoring actual performance at the institutional level. Rectification measures are deployed in case there is a variance in actual performance. Reviews of the performance at the departmental levels as well as institutional level are done through periodic meetings. Departments meet regularly to review the academic as well as administrative performance and to adopt rectification measures in case the performance falls below the targets. The Principal holds monthly meetings with faculty, more frequent meetings with the heads of the departments and daily meetings with the administrative sub-heads in order to ensure smooth implementation of the College plan/calendar. These mechanisms at the Department and the College levels ensure the sustenance and enhancement of quality.

Besides the College Calendar that helps in setting the targets for the institutional efforts, there are other programmes and support facilities that provide for internal quality checks.
